§ = Killed in action
* = V. Slightly wounded.

Total 7 Killed 14 wounded (4 v. slightly)

Remission of wounds normal - I think that Lange's is slight - it looked like a gage -
I think that Kettle is severely ill as result of shock -

I enclose address of Mr Sharp's mother (who has about 3000 sons at her) given by me by his Brother at the hospital, who came over to see Sharp - after he was killed - The Brother's chief concern was for his mother - I saw Sharp dying - bullet thro stomach - gave me morphine etc. - quiet death etc. - in case you see the mother. The other killed were all without news -

Duff

The document above lists the men of Captain Edgar Heathcote's Company that had been killed or wounded by the 7th May 1915.

It was posted to his wife, living at "Rockwood", Buxton (pictured right) on 9 May 1915.

It records the men by individual Platoons (9, 10, 11 and 12) and notes their Religion, trade, home town and the nature of the wound, or how they were killed in action. In total 7 men were killed and 14 wounded (with 4 very slightly).

At the bottom of the letter he wrote:-

"I enclose address of Sharp's mother (who has about 3 or 4 sons out here) given to me by his brother in the Lincoln's, who came over to see Sharp – after he was killed. The Brother's chief concern was for his mother. I saw Sharp dying – bullet into stomach – gave him morphine etc – quick death etc – in case you see the mother. The others killed were all instant ones -"
